PROCLAMATIONS.

[L.S.] W. C. WOODWARD,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come—
GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

K. C. MACDONALD, { WHEREAS in
Acting Attorney-General. } and by section 32 of chapter 77 of the Statutes of 1945, passed by the Legislature of British Columbia in the ninth year of Our Reign, intituled the "Warehouse Receipts Act," it is provided that the said Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor by his Proclamation:

And whereas Our said Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct, by Order in Council in that behalf, that the said Act shall come into operation on the first day of September, 1945:

NOW KNOW YE that We do by these presents proclaim and declare that the said Act shall come into operation on the first day of September, 1945.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, the Honourable WILLIAM CULHAM WOODWARD, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our said Province, this second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-five, and in the ninth year of Our Reign.

By Command.

K. C. MACDONALD,
Acting Provincial Secretary. 366-au9

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

"GAME ACT."

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that under the provisions of section 68 of the "Game Act," chapter 108 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936," the following regulations be made:—

REGULATIONS COVERING THE SEALING OF BEAVER-PELTS.

1. For the purpose of these regulations, the words "pelt" or "pelts" when used herein shall mean a beaver pelt or pelts.

2. All pelts trapped, taken, or had in possession by any one in the Province must be sealed with a seal supplied by the Game Commission, and such seal must be securely affixed to the fore part or head of each pelt, and such seal must remain on every pelt until the pelts are tanned or manufactured for commercial purposes.

3. Pelts must be produced by the person trapping the same to the nearest Game Warden, Constable, or other authorized agent for sealing within ninety (90) days after the pelts have been trapped; provided, where conditions warrant, an extension of such time-limit may be granted by the Game Commission.

4. No trapper shall dispose of any pelt in any manner whatsoever without first having the same sealed as required under these regulations.

5. No fur-trader or any other person shall buy, sell, offer for sale, possess, bargain, or trade in any pelt that has not been sealed in the manner outlined herein.

6. Every trapper shall furnish satisfactory proof to the Game Commission or to any of its authorized agents at the time of application for sealing as to the period, district, and trapping area in which the pelt or pelts were trapped or taken and the number of the licence (if any) held by the trapper.

7. The Game Commission shall have power under these regulations to appoint any person to act as its agent for the sealing of pelts.

8. Every person authorized to seal pelts shall make such returns or reports in such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Game Commission.

9. All imported pelts shall be sealed with a seal designated by the Game Commission; provided that the onus of proof that such pelts have been legally imported shall at all times be the responsibility of the person found in possession thereof, and no pelt shall be sealed until such proof is produced.

10. No common or private carrier or transportation company or person shall carry or cause to be carried, shipped, or transported within the Province any pelt that has not been sealed in accordance with the provisions of these regulations; provided that this clause shall not apply to any pelt being shipped or transported to a duly authorized agent for the specific purpose of having the pelt sealed.

R. L. MAITLAND,
Attorney-General.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

(b.) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, or securities by original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange, or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same, either conditionally or otherwise, and, subject to the "Insurance Act," to guarantee the subscription thereof, and to enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof:

(c.) To acquire, buy, sell, mortgage, lease, and deal in, either as principals or agents, real estate and other property in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(d.) To transact and carry on all kinds of agency business, and in particular in relation to the investment of money, the sale of property, and the collection and receipt of money; to carry on the business of builders, contractors, merchants, real-estate agents, general financial and investment agents, or any other business which may seem to the Company, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of these objects, and calculated to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(e.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, or otherwise to acquire any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business; and in particular any lands, buildings, easements, machinery, mines, and stock-in-trade:

(f.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company's business:

(g.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(h.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intended to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire, and to hold and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of such company:

(j.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(k.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To guarantee the payment of money or the carrying-out of any contract or obligation; but nothing herein shall entitle the Company to carry on the business of guarantee insurance:

(m.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company; and to enter into contracts or arrangements of all kinds with owners, builders, contractors, tenants, purchasers, and others:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(p.) To pay the expense of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person, firm, or corporation for services rendered in or about the foundation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, or the placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(r.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(s.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(t.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person, firm, or company as agent for the Company:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(v.) It is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and wherever domiciled, and also that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall be deemed independent objects of this Company, and, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph that the Company may exercise all or any of the powers herein contained; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or empower the Company to transact any business or do anything whereby it may be brought within the scope of the "Trust Companies Act."

"(p.) To collect moneys due to any person, persons, municipality, or Government, society, co-operative estate, or corporation, or any one else:

"(q.) To carry on the business of storage, drayage, wharfage, warehousing, and forwarding, and the doing of every act or acts, thing or things incidental or growing out of or connected with the said business, including the owning, leasing, and holding goods of every kind and description, the issue of storage and warehouse receipts (negotiable and non-negotiable) covering all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise, and the clearing through Canadian and foreign customs and excise of the same:

"(r.) To carry on anywhere within or without Canada, in any and all their branches, the businesses of trading-posts, guest-houses, resorts, auto camps, hotels, taverns, bath-houses, Turkish, Finnish, and steam baths, rooming-houses, boarding-houses, lodging-houses, dance-halls, skating-rinks, and innkeepers or proprietors of restaurants, cafés, refreshment-rooms, purveyors, caterers for public amusements generally, to buy, sell, own, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to rent, let, lease every kind and description of motor-vehicle, engine, boat, vessel, sled, toboggan, aircraft, storage, garages, and service-stations, and general mercantile business, both at wholesale and retail, repair garage proprietors, livery-stable keepers, hairdressers, barbers, perfumers, chemists, recreation, sport, entertainment, and instruction of all kinds, merchants and dealers in all kinds and descriptions of foods, drinks, beverages, liquid refreshments, tobaccos, cigars, cigarettes, confectionery, and any other goods, provision, fuels, medical and surgical supplies, tourist goods and things whatsoever likely to be desired by persons dealing with the Company, agents for shipping companies and carriers, general merchants, general agents, and any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection therewith, and, subject to the provisions of the 'Government Liquor Act' of British Columbia, to own and operate beer-parlours, taverns, and licensed premises, and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being beneficially carried on, or calculated, either directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

"(s.) To acquire, own, carry on, hold, operate, manage, be interested in, turn to account, mortgage, encumber, and alienate the above businesses in all their branches and departments, and also other businesses and property and rights in connection therewith or ancillary thereto; manufacturers, carriers by air, land, or water, merchants and dealers in goods, wares, and chattels of any description whatsoever, contractors, wharfingers, warehousemen, foundrymen, electricians, valuers, brokers, agents, importers, exporters, financiers, commission agents:

"(t.) To exercise all other powers, rights, and privileges competent to a company incorporated under the 'Companies Act' or any Act in amendment thereto or in substitution therefor:

"(u.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property or goods acquired by the Company or for services or other valuable consideration:

"(v.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person or corporation be a member of this Company or not.

"The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except where the context so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other."

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.
